Marion Maidwelle graces the pages of our Kane Photo Exchange for a very good reason . . . she needs the work. Suffice to say we can pick up the phone at almost any time and she will answer our beckon call given proper instruction and means. This is not to say she will answer YOUR beckon call, however. Actually, Marion would probably not find herself in any dubious situation were it not for the fact she needs the work. Marion turned out to be quite shy and as we are ALL a bit inhibited by our desires a certain reserve was employed to protect her from "too much contact", emotional or otherwise. When and if she returns for more work/pleasure we will no doubt delve deeper into her psyche (panties) having just scratched the surface here.

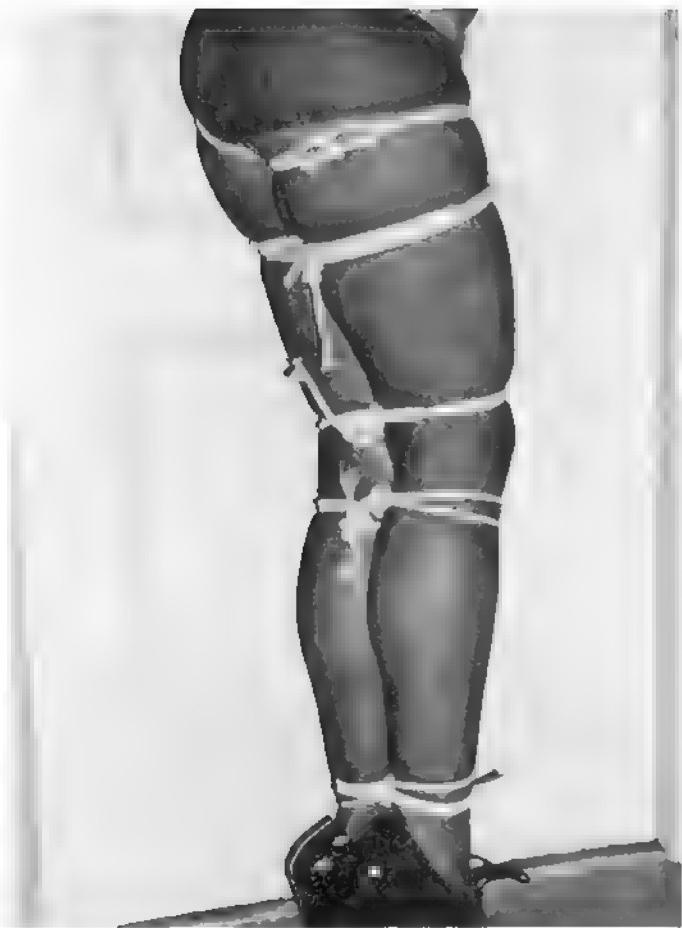

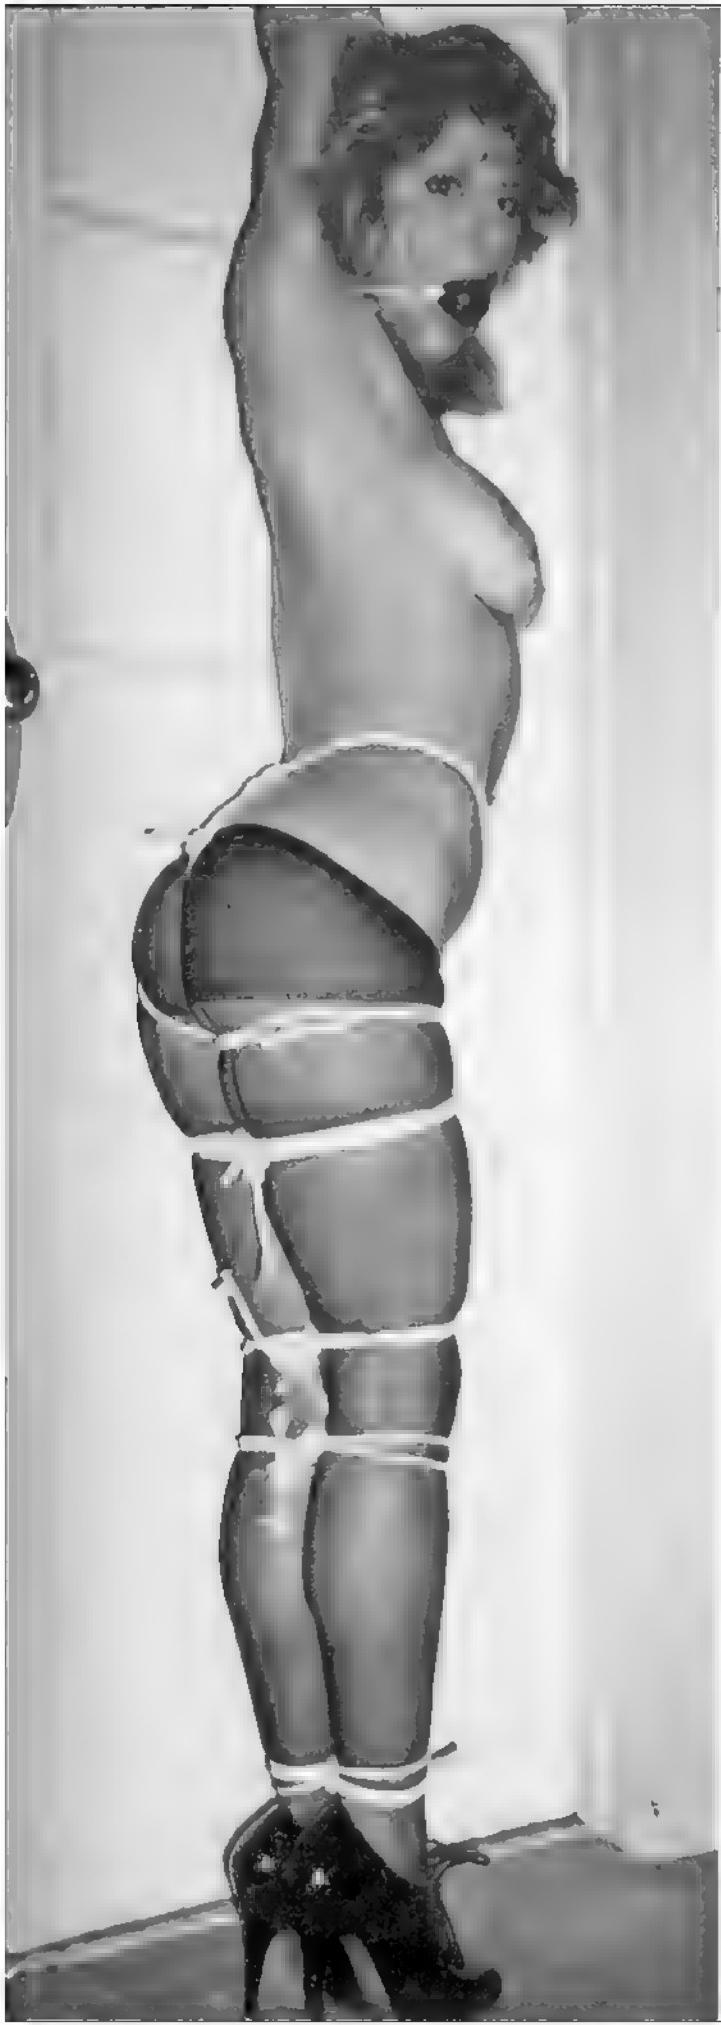

out of 'departure'. A '96', I prefer a train ride and enjoy any opportunity to take one, whether for leisure or profit. The longer the ride the better, so I can drain my city stressed brain. On a crowded train, people keep to themselves. Conversations are limited, usually, to single word responses and I am at ease with my well kept secret. I have been a model actress dancer since I was barely old enough to drink and dance. The straight stuff never appealed to me, so as soon as I was offered my first big "spread" in a glossy skin mag, I gladly accepted. The trade has been good to me over the years. I've traveled extensively through Europe, danced in Amsterdam, Paris, Rome. I've worked nearly every U.S. city and have made many good connections in the business. My phone number hasn't changed in fifteen years and I'm in everyone's black book. I'm grateful for all my opportunities and have taken good stock of myself, knowing when my looks and figure decline, when I lose my charms and gravity finally takes hold. I'll be on solid ground.

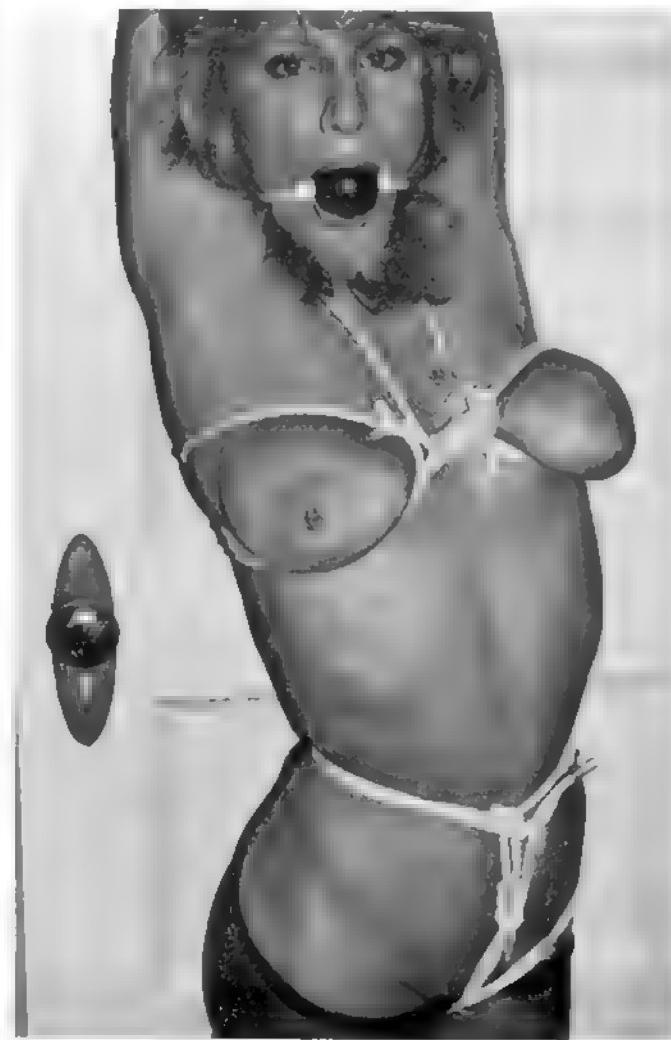

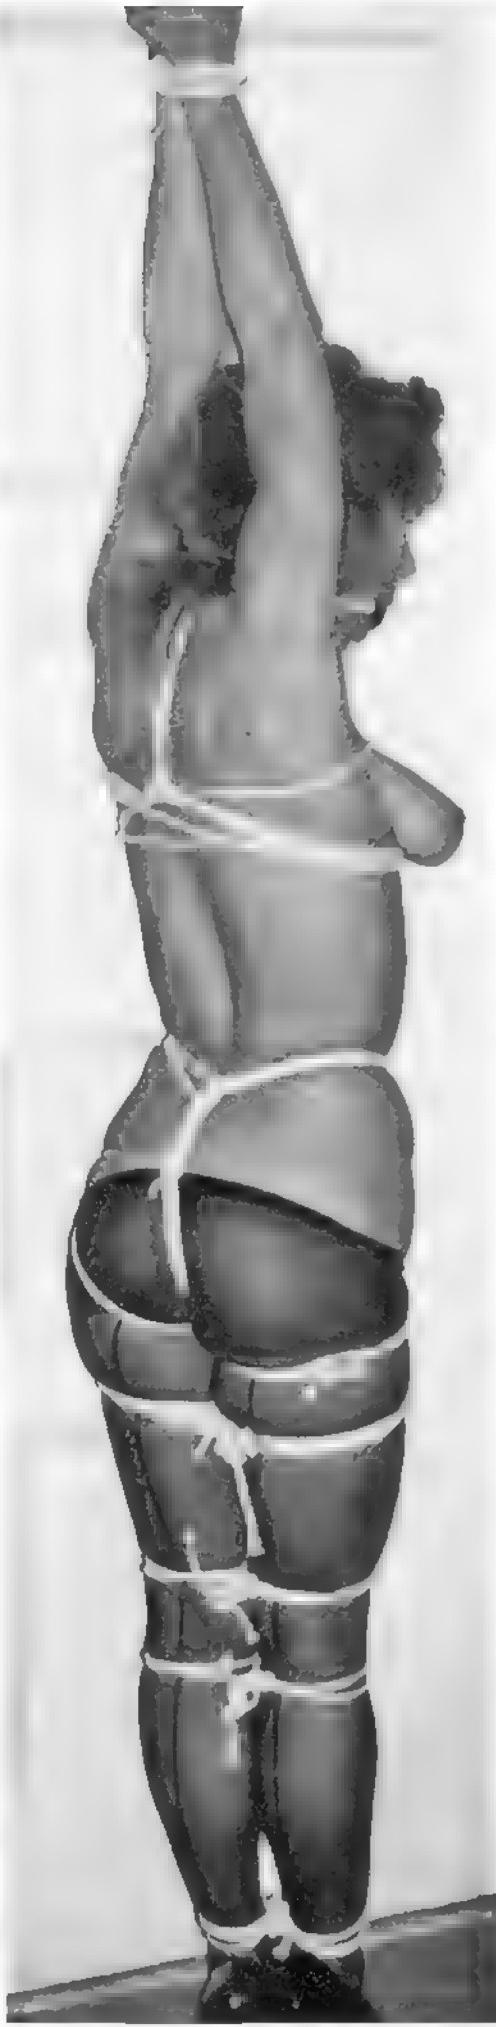

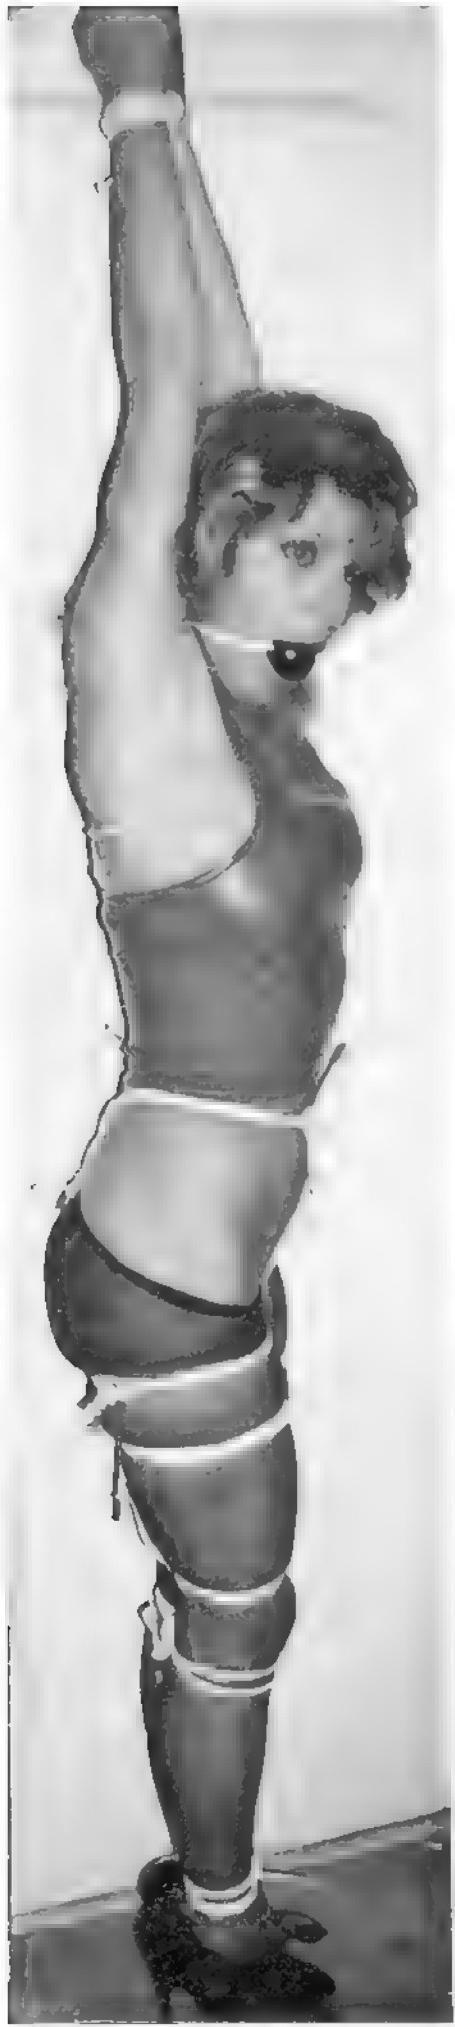

I get a call from the Exchange people once in a while. We work well together. We were introduced through a mutual acquaintance in the city who operates on S.M service. That scene is fairly unwholesome but I get in the mood for it every so often. The owner takes special care of me because she knows I'm dependable so when she set up my first meeting with KME I eagerly participated. Since then I've enjoyed a few chance meetings with them, the results of which are pictured here. They have asked me to detail a true confessional text to accompany the photos because their readers prefer fact to fiction. Since I relinquish all control during these sessions, I find this task difficult.

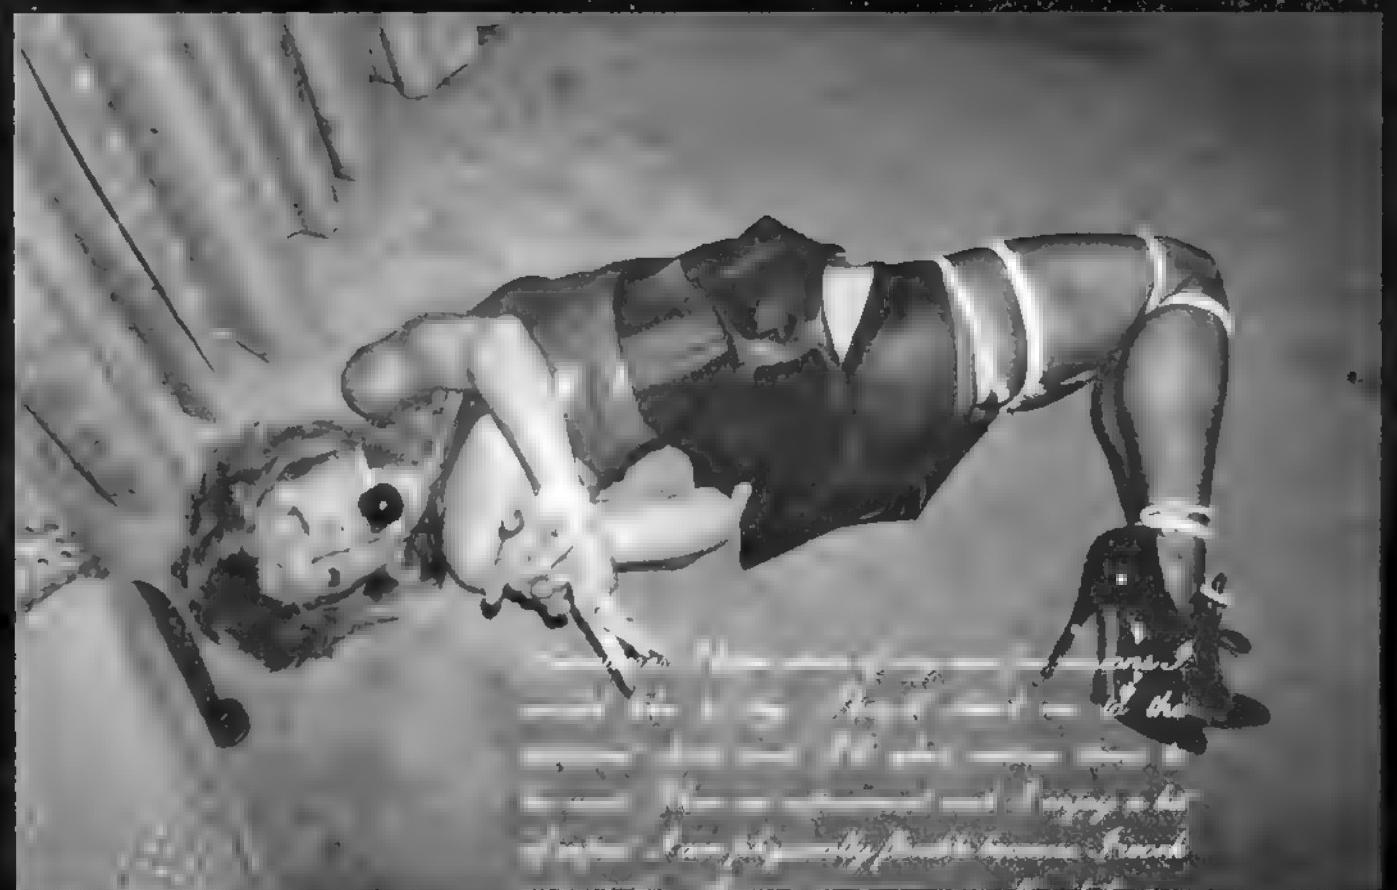

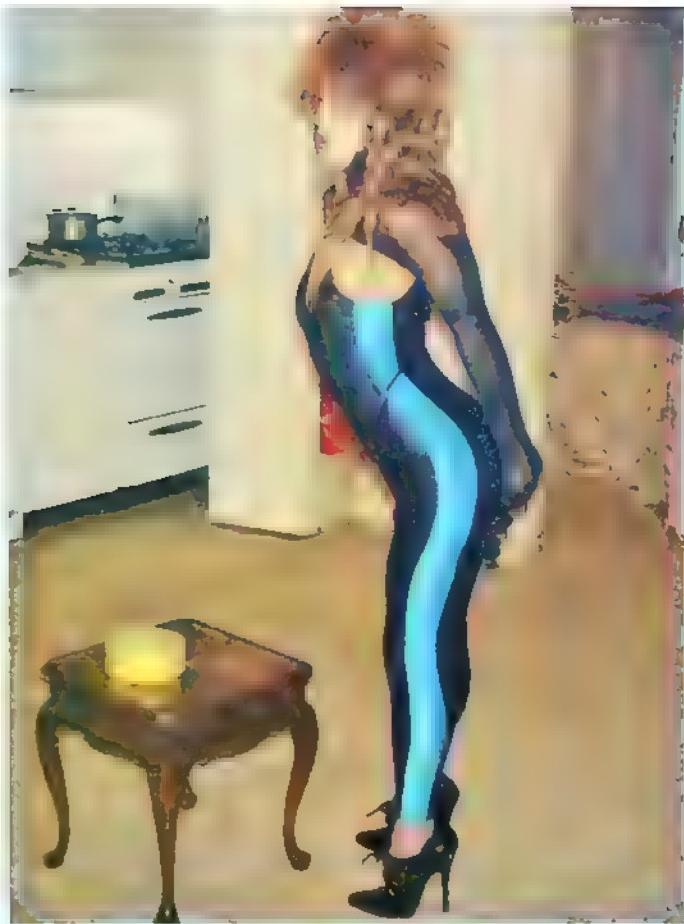

out daily. I can maneuver well while unrestrained. I can touch my elbow behind my back, bend and stretch at will.

We share a rubber fetish. They put rubber restraints, mouth plugs and latex clothing on me. I love the clothing. It fits absolutely skin tight and complements my figure in a most flattering way. I think we luxuriously wet when the clothing stays on for a very long time. It permits limited movement and I am restrained without being ticked.

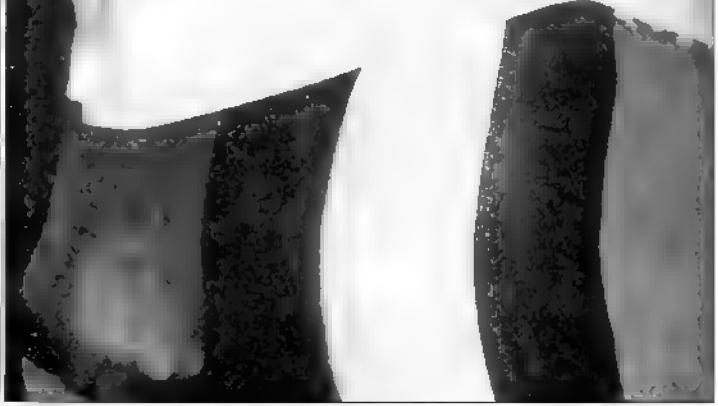

The photos of me as someone else are great because I really AM someone else and I had no idea who that was while the session was going on. I thought they were making me up like a clown. They were humiliating me while they painted my face and I had absolutely no idea of what was happening. I was gagged and bound, unable to move or talk, and then blindfolded. They used make-up as a masque and the process took hours. The wig went on and I was completely disguised. I was led to another room where they proceeded to do a number of bandages. I look like a rock star in bondage in these photos. At one point I remember playing "ball" with a little rubber toy, rolling it around the floor with my nose. How ridiculous. I was acting like a puppy, disguised as a rock star, wearing exercise clothing, bound with elastic tape, tied too tight, enough . . . please . . . let me go!

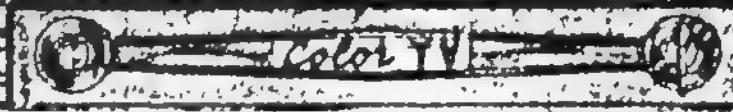

My dear [unclear] your Name I will determine
you. In the mean time, please enjoy?

Best in bondage,

Lydia (X-girl)

Here I am trying to scare the hell out of someone who obviously doesn't frighten easily, or doesn't give a shit, I really couldn't tell. Try to imagine what YOU'D do in the same situation ... You've just met. You introduce the idea of B/D as an alternative turn-on and she says, "Great, I'll try anything once." So you pull this peculiar device out of your coat pocket and pop it into her mouth and proceed to inflate it. As her face distorts she moans a little and you are delighted. Then you tie her down to the bed and take full advantage of her while keeping in mind she'll try anything once or doesn't give a shit.
